

ATTENTION:
To Apply for the Century Farm
Award You Must Meet ALL of the Following Criteria:

- I am the owner or operator of land which has been in my family for one hundred years or more.
- My family has not previously received this award.
- I am a practicing Catholic.
- I or a representative of my family is able to be present at the Salina Diocese Rural Life Day (August 16) to accept the award.
- I am willing to introduce my family members who will be present with me at the event and make a few comments (5 minutes or less) about our century farm.
- I am willing to submit my comments in writing for the Rural Life Office Archives and for use in any article featuring the award recipients in The Register.

If you met all of the criteria above, you may proceed with applying for the Century Farm Award.
