OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK activities February 1st–3rd continue to keep me on the go. I am looking forward to visiting three additional parishes involving eight schools. Special thanks to those schools that are combining with neighboring schools to celebrate Catholic Schools Week together. Appreciation also to the committed teachers, administrative personnel and parishes as they work together and dedicate their lives to educate the youth of our diocese in their spiritual as well as educational lives.

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE will be celebrated in the Church on Thursday, February 2, 2017 and in parishes on the weekend of February 4-5, 2017. In 1997, Saint Pope John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. "Our Holy Father Francis has given the Church this special opportunity to pray for all those women and men in consecrated life who have given their lives in love to God. This prayer may prompt each of us to ask, 'How is God calling me to give of myself this day, that I might know the deeper joy of service to God and others?'" . Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation. Go to the USCCB website www.usccb.org/consecratedlife for more information and resources.

OFFICE OF THE REGISTER

NECROLOGY UPDATE

The 2016 update for the Necrology is complete. The update includes the addition of Fr. Larry Pierce and several index pages. Active priests should have picked their copies up at the Clergy Renewal Days in January. For those who were unable to make it, and for retired priests, the copies have been mailed to you. Please be sure to insert the new pages and toss the old pages.

As a reminder about the Necrology, there should be a copy in every sacristy in the diocese. If your sacristy does NOT have a copy, please contact Karen at \(785\) 827-8746 x21 or karen.bonar@salinadiocese.org. Additionally, many rectories should have a copy of the Necrology. Some rectories that are unoccupied will not have a copy. If there is not a copy in your rectory or sacristy, please let me know! I have a list for which locations should have a copy of the Necrology.

The only clergy with a personal copy of the Necrology are the Bishop and retired priests. Otherwise, the copy remains at the sacristy/rectory and will stay put, even if you are reassigned. If a Necrology copy made its way into your personal boxes during a move and you have an extra copy, please let me know and we can try to find its original home.

CLERGY BIOGRAPHY

Karen has completed a biography of every priest in the Diocese of Salina. The last few were delivered at Clergy Renewal Days. Please email changes to karen.bonar@salinadioces.org. There are 14 priests who have not returned the biography with any changes. If you do not have a copy of your biography, please email Karen. By writing the biography and having you fact check it for errors or omissions, it helps when clergy reassignments happen, as well as when it's time to compile your Necrology entry. Thank you.

B. The front pews are reserved for the people in the procession.

C. Catechumens/Candidates should sit on the left side of the church; Sponsors, Directors and Pastors should sit on the right side of the church. Please try to arrange the Catechumens and Candidates in the order that they will be called by the RCIA Director so that the procession will flow smoothly.

D. The RCIA Director comes to the ambo when the name of the parish is called. S/he calls out the names in this way:

“I present for baptism...(all those names)

“I present for full communion...(all those names)

The Catechumens and Candidates come to the front as the names are being called. They should all leave the pew immediately, not waiting for their names to be called (think liturgical procession rather than graduation ceremony). The Bishop will greet each one individually, after which they return to their seats.

When the Director finishes reading the names, s/he gives the Book of Elect to the Bishop, who signs it.

2. The Chrism Mass is at Sacred Heart Cathedral, Thursday, April 6, at 11:30 a.m.

3. The Easter Vigil on April 15 should be celebrated no earlier than 8:30 p.m., since it will not be dark before then.

OFFICE OF RURAL LIFE

Please announce to your parish and plan to attend the Vocation of Agricultural Leader Workshop sponsored by the Diocese of Salina and the Catholic Rural Life. The workshop will be from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 25, 2017 at St. Mary Queen of Angels Catholic Church in Russell.

This workshop is for anyone involved or interested in agriculture: producers, processors, consumers and anyone willing to consider how our Catholic faith informs all aspects of agriculture.

Farming is not easy work. Given the complexities of agriculture production: the natural elements, changing climate, global competition, and constant pressure to make a living while being good stewards of the natural resources -- there is a great need for ethical leadership in addressing these challenges and understanding our relationship to others, to God and to the environment.

The workshop will include a presentation of a newly release document titled Vocation of the Agricultural Leader. Most Reverend Edward Weisenburger will participate. Mr. Jim Ennis the Executive Director of Catholic Rural Life is the keynote presenter.

Additional information and Reservations may be made with Fr Rich Daise at 785-462-2179 or frich@sacredheartcolby.com. The $25 workshop fee includes a copy of Vocation of the Agriculture Leader and lunch prepared and served by the St. Mary Queen of Angels CYO. Students are free, but a registration is required to plan for lunch. Please make your reservations

OPERATION RICE BOWL material order forms should have recently arrived in your parish. Each parish is responsible for ordering the desired materials from Catholic Relief Services. This collection is taken up at the end of the Lenten season. If you have not received an order form for your parish materials, contact Catholic Relief Services directly at 888-277-7575 (Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Eastern Time) or 877-435-7277 (after hours and weekends.) Or, you may go to www.crs.org and click on “About Us” and then “Contact CRS.” There is no cost for your parish to receive the Operation Rice Bowl materials.

Optional Rice Bowl Blessing on Ash Wednesday

(suggested use: at announcement time just before the final blessing at Ash Wednesday Mass)

Presider:

This Lent, our parish will be participating in Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Operation Rice Bowl. It is a faith-in-action program that can help each of us experience our Catholic faith in a new way, by living in solidarity with the world’s most poor and vulnerable. We hope that you and your family will take advantage of this opportunity to learn about the challenges facing many of our poorest brothers and sisters, and to deepen your own faith.

Included in your Rice Bowl is a Lenten calendar where you will find daily activities and prayers. There are Stories of Hope from people whose lives are better because of our support. There are also ideas for simple, meatless meals from around the world that you can prepare as a family each Friday.

The Rice Bowl itself holds the contributions families make during Lent. Seventy-five percent of donations to your Rice Bowl go to Catholic Relief Services’ programs serving the poorest of the poor overseas; twenty-five percent goes toward diocesan projects that minister to those who are poor and vulnerable in our own communities.

As we look ahead to the coming days of Lent, may our fasting be a hunger for justice. May our alms be a making of peace. May our prayer be for the change of humble and grateful hearts. We ask that God put our faith into action, to work in love, to persevere in hope.

Blessing Prayer:

Loving God, You are blessed and the source of every blessing. Bless us now and as we use these Rice Bowls in prayer, fasting, and almsgiving this Lent. May they be an instrument of your love, and a reminder to us of your great desire for peace and justice. May these Rice Bowls serve to unite us with our brothers and sisters around the world, especially those who are hungry, homeless, and in need. May they help us deepen our own faith in you and our love for one another, as we await with joyful anticipation the great celebration of Easter. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

If you and your family think that God has something to reveal to you by participation in Operation Rice Bowl this Lent, please pick up a bowl from the basket on the way out of church.

The Lord be with you....May almighty God bless you
Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.

THE ANNUAL WOMEN'S SPIRITUALTY CONFERENCE sponsored by the women's groups of Seven Dolors and St. Thomas More parishes is Saturday, March 11, 2017 in Manhattan, KS. See enclosed brochure.

ST. JUDE PILGRIMAGE OF HOPE... Need Hope? Want to learn more about the Apostle of Hope? Would you like a chance to venerate the largest relic of one of the 12 Apostle's outside of Rome? If so...

Sacred Heart Cathedral is proud to announce that we will be the first stop on the St. Jude Pilgrimage of Hope in Kansas starting February 19th at 7PM. We will host the Ministries of Dominican Shrine of St. Jude Thaddeus in Chicago for an evening of prayer and blessings focusing on the Hope inspired St. Jude, the patron saint of desperate and seemingly hopeless situations.

Fr. Mike Ford, O.P., the director of the Shrine, will lead us as we explore what Hope is, how it can help us in today's complicated world, and give those who attend an opportunity to receive a special blessing with Oil of St. Jude. St. Jude oil will also be available after the event.

Normally located in Chicago, this will be the first time the Arm Relic of St. Jude has visited the great state of Kansas. Having been in the care of Dominican Order for centuries, it is reported to be the largest relic of one of the 12 men Jesus chose to carry His Gospel into the world.

The Pilgrimage of Hope will travel to St. Isidore's in Manhattan on Monday 2/20, St. Xavier's in Junction City on Wednesday 2/22, and St. Lawrence's in Lawrence Thursday, 2/23. All of these events will begin at 7PM. Please visit the Shrine's website www.The-Shrine.org for addresses and more information.

Celebrate National Marriage Week 2017 with Amoris Laetitia

National Marriage Week:

Every February 7-14, it is an opportunity to promote, celebrate and strengthen marriage

Amoris Laetitia:

Pope Francis's exhortation "The Joy of Love," (April 2016) about marriage and family life

- "The word of God tells us that the family is entrusted to a man, a woman and their children, so that they may become a communion of persons in the image of the union of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit" (no. 29).
- "Every family should look to the icon of the Holy Family of Nazareth" (no. 30).
- "No one can think that the weakening of the family as that natural society founded on marriage will prove beneficial to society as a whole" (no. 52).
- "The sacrament [of marriage] is a gift given for the sanctification and salvation of the spouses" (no. 72).
- "The Church is a family of families, constantly enriched by the lives of all those domestic churches" (no. 87).
- "In our families, we must learn to imitate Jesus' own gentleness in our way of speaking to one another" (no. 100).
- "Love opens our eyes and enables us to see, beyond all else, the great worth of a human being" (no. 128).

Edith Prendergast, R.S.C.

Edith Prendergast, R.S.C. was born Catherine (Kathleen) Prendergast in Moneyvroe, Cappoquin, Co. Waterford, to Catherine and Richard Prendergast. She was the fifth of six children to be raised on the family farm in the townland of Affane in the western area of the county. It was in this rural setting that Edith learned that care for those less fortunate was a basic human value that defines who we are in the world before one another and before God. Her father, Richard, was a man who often invited travelers neighbors, strangers and friends, to join the family at table for a meal. Need was met with Richard's quiet graciousness, and this ever-present generosity toward those less fortunate shaped Edith as she eventually grew to discern a vocation to religious life. Edith's primary-level education took place at St. John the Baptist primary school in Affane, from which she graduated and entered secondary school at the Presentation Convent School in Lismore, Waterford. Following her graduation from Secondary School (High School), she sat for state examinations in which she successfully secured employment as a civil servant in the governmental Department of Agriculture. Within a year, however, the strong faith environment and outreach to the needy experienced in her family setting, inspired her to dedicate herself to religious life. Inspired by the story and example of Mother Mary Aikenhead, Edith pursued this vocation with the Religious Sisters of Charity at Milltown, Dublin, entering the convent on February 2, 1959. It was as a novice that the young woman born to Richard and Catherine chose the name Edith in religious life.

Finding God in Everything

“There is a painful price in being the candle. For just as a candle consumes itself as it radiates brightness, so, too, must we be willing to pour out our lives in love and compassion as Jesus did.” (Stand in the Light. Congress 2007)

“The prophets of our tradition have something to tell us about lifting our gaze and seeing anew. They looked at the world situations – the social, political, and spiritual environment – and saw the possibility of something different. They called for a world of justice and harmony, a world that places the God of life, the true God, at the center. ‘Let your eyes look straight ahead and your glance be directly forward’ (Prv 4:25). Standing in the now with all of its uncertainties, its disappointments, they held on to God’s faithful promise in covenant... We celebrate God’s reign – both now and not yet. We live in that not-yet time, a time when we must continually open our eyes anew and behold again and again the outrageous love of God, a God who continues to name us good and precious; who invites us to be wide-eyed, prophetic, and visionary.” (Lift Your Gaze, See Anew! Congress 2008)

“The world coaches us to store up treasure, to grow our bank accounts, to win, grab and get. The gospel, on the other hand, invites us to sit in the company of others, to care about their needs, to trust that open-handedness is more powerful than any market... Now is the time for us to show the world that there is another way, a way marked by blessing and gratitude, a way sustained by our ‘yes’ to the banquet of life, the Eucharistic feast. Now is the time for us to show all the miracle of what God’s presence does in our lives and in our world.” (Incredible Abundance. Congress 2010)
