OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

THANK YOU to all the priests in attendance at the Council of Priests meeting in Victoria and at the Annual Clergy Retreat in Wichita.

MASS OF REPARATION due to the clergy abuse scandal will begin as Katie works to create a schedule. I ask that you please work with her on this enormous project. As I said in my e-news, for those with multiple parishes, I would like to potentially celebrate one Mass in the morning, one in the evening, and maybe one in the morning on the following day. We could also have an Adoration hour and/or a Q&A hour. Mass could be on a weekend or during the week. My hope is to visit every parish within a year.

PORTRAITS were recently distributed at the Annual Clergy Retreat to each pastor to give to their parish, mission parishes, and schools. If you were unable to pick up your packet, Katie will be mailing them to you. You will also be receiving an email from this office that will include an electronic version of the picture, a copyright release statement, and the group photo of myself and all priests.

FINAL CONFIRMATION SCHEDULE dated 9/20/18 is attached. This is the schedule that has been posted to my calendar. If you need to make a change, please contact Katie as soon as possible (chancery2@salinadiocese.org or 785-827-8746 ext. 34). The Confirmation Schedule is posted on the diocesan website at <https://salinadiocese.org/bishops-office/confirmation-schedule>, and the dates will be featured on the Diocesan Monthly Calendar. I appreciate all of your efforts in helping to finalize the Confirmation Schedule for the 2018-19 year.

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI is on Thursday, October 4, 2018. St. Francis is the secondary patron saint of our diocese. I encourage you to include special prayers/petitions for the needs of our Diocese.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH is every October. Respect Life Sunday is October 7, 2018. Materials to promote the sacredness of life can be found on the USCCB site at www.usccb.org/respectlife.

WHITE MASS will be celebrated on Thursday, October 18, 2018 at 7:00 P.M. at Sacred Heart Cathedral. This Mass will honor all members of the healthcare profession. This Mass is open to all, and there will be a light reception following in the Hall of Bishops. I encourage you to come and concelebrate this special Mass. Fr. Frank Coady is communicating with Dr. Herrenbruck about all of the details.

OFFICE OF CONTINUING EDUCATION OF PRIESTS

JANUARY RENEWAL DAYS: January 14-17, 2019

OFFICE OF LITURGY

1. The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception in 2018 is celebrated on Saturday, December 8. As the Patronal Feast day of the United States, the solemnity is always a holy day of obligation. The obligation is fulfilled by attending the vigil Mass on Friday evening, December 7, or Mass during the day on Saturday morning.

In the Table of Liturgical Days, a solemnity of the Virgin Mary ranks lower than a Sunday in Advent; therefore, the Immaculate Conception will end on the afternoon of Saturday, December 8. On Saturday evening, Evening Prayer I of the Second Sunday of Advent is celebrated instead of Evening Prayer II of the Immaculate Conception, and Masses are that of the Second Sunday of Advent.

PRIEST COUNCIL

PRIEST COUNCIL DUES: The priest council dues have been reinstated now that we have a new bishop. The council voted to keep the dues at $25.00. Please make checks payable to: Priests' Council.

PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

2018 MISSION CO-OP: If your parish has not yet sent to the diocese the Mission Cooperative collection from summer 2018, please do so at your earliest convenience. Your prompt attention to this will help avoid confusion of the (summer) 2018 Mission Co-Op collection with the (October) World Mission Sunday collection. Please also return the completed Mission Co-Op evaluation forms; your candid comments are very helpful in deciding which mission groups to invite back to the diocese.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY is October 20-21, 2018. By now you should have received your packet in your parish. The theme for this year's collection is "Through Youth To The World: Voices for Mission." Please display the posters and use the following bulletin insert announcements to help promote this collection.

Bulletin Announcements:

THE WEEKEND BEFORE WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: NEXT WEEKEND, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support the mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers, and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

THE WEEKEND OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY. We celebrate this day by remembering the revitalizing mission at the heart of our Christian faith – to bring the Gospel to all! The collection today for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith ensures the work and service of the Mission Church, as it supports priests, religious and lay leaders who offer the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions.

THE WEEKEND AFTER WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: THANK YOU for your generous response to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith last weekend on World Mission Sunday. Our parish raised $(insert amount). You may stay connected year round to the Pope's missions, continuing the commitment of World Mission Sunday, by visiting MISSIO.org.

A World Mission Sunday contribution envelope should be included among the regular parish contribution envelopes your parishioners already have. Also, please do not confuse the World Mission Sunday envelopes with the Mission Co-Op envelopes. If you have any questions please contact Brenda at the chancery, 785-827-8746 or brenda.streit@salinadiocese.org.

BISHOPS FUND – As of October 1, the Bishop’s Fund with The Catholic Community Foundation of the Diocese of Salina (CCF) will begin taking grant applications. The deadline for applying will be December 1, 2018. You can find the application and eligibility guidelines at <https://salinadiocese.org/foundation/>. PARISHIONER LIST – Once again, it is time to update your parish lists. Beginning Oct. 1, we will be emailing each parish a parishioner list from our database and need to have them reviewed and returned to Lois Yost at loisyost@salindiocese.org by Nov. 1, 2018. Please compare our spreadsheet with your information and make any changes directly on our spreadsheet. Note the changes in the appropriate column and highlight the names that have changes or should be deleted. Please do not delete anyone. Again, this year note the two additional columns, one for phone numbers, and one for email addresses. If you have this information available, please share it with us. Bishop Gerald Vincke has started a monthly e-news. If our database has the email addresses for your parishioners, they will receive his e-news. It emails the First Friday of every month. Again, thank you to those who routinely send updates.

#iGiveCatholic – A COUPLE REMINDERS AND TIPS

An email was sent from Beth to all parishes, schools and organizations late in September. It was full of tips, training opportunities and resources available to help you complete your profile and begin promoting your participation in #iGiveCatholic. If you did not receive that email, it's likely we have the wrong email address for you. Contact Beth at beth.shearer@salinadiocese.org. Here are a couple key points from that email.

Set up your profile – Your profile needs to be completed by October 31, 2018. Everyone should have received an email from GiveGab on August 16 with sign up information. Go to that email and get signed up. If you have any problems, just use the blue chat button.

Matching funds are available – the diocese has several donors who established a pool of matching funds. So every gift to our diocese thru #iGiveCatholic can be matched $1 for $1, up to the amount in the pool. There will be a $1,000 maximum per donor. At this point the pool is $50,000. But you will need to be signed up by October 31 to participate.

Training and resources are available on the #iGiveCatholic website <https://salina.igivecatholic.org/> Check under the menu button for either section, Resources or Training.

Promote your participation in #iGiveCatholic. The Salina diocese has items available, specific to our diocese, to help you promote this giving opportunity.

1. Save the date cards designed to be distributed to potential donors, parishioners, etc. I know some parishes are using them as bulletin inserts.
2. Banners that say "iGiveCatholic" were distributed at the Priests' Retreat in Wichita. If you didn't get one, there is an #iGiveCatholic flier attached you may use for photos. Additionally there is an instruction sheet w/details regarding the Oct. 5th deadline. Use this to promote your cause and share with the diocese and we'll include you in our video.
3. Be active on social media promoting your participation -- Facebook, twitter, whatever you use. It's important to let your parishioners, as well as past parishioners (those who have moved away, but still care about you) know they can give Catholic through you. Also promote through your bulletins

Dear Priests and PLC's,

Five years ago, The Register was changed to a bi-weekly production and was mailed to all Catholic households across the diocese. Instead of requiring subscriptions, we began asking for donations. The donation drive will continue with the same format as last year.

Parishioners are asked to make a $25 donation to help support the Register. They are also given the opportunity to add an additional $20 to the gift. This additional amount would help to cover the cost for the subscription of a family who is unable to donate. A donation envelope will be included in the November 9th issue of the Register. Your help in advertising this would be greatly appreciated.

In the past, many parishioners generously donated the extra amount. Some gave even more than we had asked! Those funds were all added to The Register Endowment Fund.

We will ask the parishioners to mail their donation to the Register in Salina. If some leave their envelopes in your collection plate, or if they write the check to your parish. Please either forward the envelope to the Register, or, provide us with a reimbursement check. You are welcome to wait until you have several checks before you forward them to us. Parishioners are also invited to donate online at salinadiocese.org/the-register

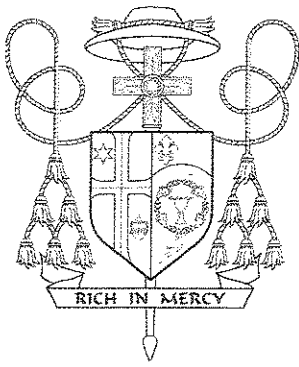

I would also like to thank you and your parish office for your cooperation in sending us address changes for your parishioners. The Post Office charges The Register 64 cents each time one cannot be delivered. Many times, we send an issue of The Register two or three times before we are aware of the problem! If we do not receive verification of an address change, we will immediately stop mailing until we are advised of a new address. By keeping our offices aware of any address changes, we can ensure that your parishioners continue to receive The Register.

Please see THE REGISTER section of this SDNB for more information. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact Karen Bonar, Editor of The Register, at karen.bonar@salinadiocese.org.

Blessings on all your endeavors,

+ Gerald L. Vincke

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For many parishioners, The Register is their primary source for news and events that affect our Church and the lives of Catholics in our diocese and around the world. It helps unite and inform us as members of our Catholic family, and is a valuable tool for the evangelization of the parishioners within our Diocese.

Five years ago, The Register was changed to a bi-weekly publication and began mailing to the nearly 18,000 Catholic households of registered parishioners. Instead of requiring subscriptions, we asked for donations to help support this initiative.

Your generosity has been incredible. Many of you gave donations that were beyond what we had requested. Thank you for extending your kindness to all readers of The Register.

We intend to continue this method of distributing The Register. An envelope for your donation is enclosed in this issue, and it is my hope that you will participate in this endeavor. You are also able to make your donation online at salinadiocese.org/the-register. I am appreciative to those who continue to generously support this important cause.

At this time, I would also like to take the opportunity to thank all those who contribute articles and photographs of events around the diocese to The Register. Thank you for taking the time to keep our diocese informed. Additionally, I would like to thank all of the businesses and organizations that continue to support The Register as advertisers. Please be sure to provide support to these good people.

I ask you to kindly consider the many benefits of supporting The Register with your donation. Please use the envelope provided and follow the instructions to mail your donation, payable to The Register, P.O. Box 1038, Salina, KS 67402-1038.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gerald L. Vincke

40 Ways to Foster Prayer In Your Home

From Raising Faith-Filled Kids by Tom McGrath

What did St. Paul mean when he said we should "pray unceasingly"? Should we all join a monastery? If we look carefully, our daily lives offer infinite opportunities to pray nonstop.

Can YOU add to the list of forty?

1. Teach your children one of the classic prayers, or one they may not know.
2. Pray before meals together, whether a standard prayer or a spontaneous one.
3. Pray with your children at bedtime.
4. Pray the Rosary whenever you start a long car trip.
5. Create a May altar in your home with a statue of Mary surrounded by flowers.
6. Buy or make a beautifully scripted prayer or Bible verse and hang it on a wall in your home.
7. Commemorate the anniversary of a loved one's death by praying for him or her.
8. Keep a prayer jar for special prayer intentions or requests.
9. Start your day with a time of quiet prayer or meditation; encourage your children to do so also.
10. Visit the cemetery and pray for your dearly departed.
11. Have everyone in the family take turns praying for one of the other family members during the day for a whole week. Switch prayer partners every week.
12. Pray for the president, your congressional representatives, your mayor, and other civic officials.
13. Pray for church leaders and your parish clergy and ministers.
14. Find out when a family member's important meeting or test is and remember to pray at that time.

15. Turn every worry that drifts into your thoughts into a prayer.
16. Pray for every person who is a source of resentment for you.
17. Pray for the person who cuts you off in traffic.
18. Pray for the person who is the subject of a rumor (instead of passing the gossip on).
19. Tell your children to pray while doing their chores.
20. Pray while walking, riding your bike or on the treadmill.
21. Pray for people who are homeless or down on their luck. (Giving them a dollar or two also constitutes praying.)
22. Sing your favorite hymn from church while driving in the car, showering, or doing housework.
23. Pray while you're reading the newspaper.
24. Pray a Hail Mary for the person in need when you hear a siren.
25. Pray for a teacher you are grateful you had when you were in school.
26. Pray for a teacher you are grateful your child has now.
27. Give thanks at mealtimes for the farmer who grew the food, the workers who picked the crops, and the people who processed, handled, delivered, and sold the food. Thank God for the sun and soil and water that made it possible.
28. Pray at bedtime for someone who did a kindness to you today.
29. Visit family members in a nursing home and pray with them.
30. Send a letter to a distant relative, saying you remember him or her in your prayers.

UNASHAMED

PORNOGRAPHY, SHAME, AND THE HEALING COMMUNITY

GOD'S DESIGN:

WE ARE WIRED FOR INTIMATE CONNECTION. INTIMACY REQUIRES A WILLINGNESS TO BE KNOWN BY OTHERS THROUGH OUR WILLINGNESS TO RISK VULNERABILITY. WE WILL EXAMINE THE BIBLICAL NARRATIVE THAT SPEAKS TO OUR NEED FOR RELATIONAL CONNECTION.

THE REALITY:

PORNOGRAPHY SELLS US A LIE THAT THE INTENSITY OF SEXUALIZED IMAGES ARE THE WAY TOWARD INTIMACY. SHAME MOTIVATES INDIVIDUALS TOWARD PORNOGRAPHIC CONSUMPTION AND IT MOVES US TOWARD HIDING, WITHDRAWAL, ATTACKING SELF, OR ATTACKING OTHERS. WE WILL EXAMINE HOW SHAME BECOMES THE BARRIER TO INTIMACY.

MOVING AHEAD:

MOVING AHEAD REQUIRES THE WILLINGNESS TO RISK VULNERABILITY IN ORDER TO FIND HEALING. WE WILL EXAMINE THE CHARACTERISTICS OF A HEALING COMMUNITY AND SOME PRACTICAL WAYS AN INDIVIDUAL CAN CONSIDER FOR HEALING THE INTERNALIZED SHAME THAT IS SHAPING THEIR LIFE NARRATIVE.

This webinar will examine the role of shame, especially in relation to the promises of intimacy pornography promises but never delivers. A healing community is one that enables brokenness to be openly discussed, so that it can be healed. We will explore some of the essential characteristics of a healing community, along with key principles to help people gain freedom from the damage of pornography.

WEBINAR PRESENTERS:

DR. JOHN VINING

John Vining has been involved in counseling for nearly 30 years. He is an ordained minister in the Church of God, Cleveland, Tennessee, and an adjunct Professor at Pentecostal Theological Seminary. He is the former Director of Family Ministries at the Church of God International Offices and is currently in private counseling practice. John has both a Master of Divinity degree and a Doctor of Ministry degree from Columbia Theological Seminary.

REV. JOHN COMSTOCK

John Comstock has served most of his ministry in support roles for the local church. While working for the Mapping Center for Evangelism and Church Growth, he helped churches utilize technology to build relationships. While working for the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, he supported local churches in their evangelistic efforts. He has been working with the Global Ministry Center for thirteen years and coordinates the resources for DiscipleshipPlace.org. He is a graduate of Mid America Nazarene University.

Diocese of Salina Safe Environment Newsletter

October, 2018

October

As we embark on a new month and a new school year, we are also blessed to welcome the new Shepherd of our Diocese Bishop Gerald Vincke. Bishop Vincke was ordained August 22, on the Feast of the Queenship of Mary. Since his ordination he has been very busy visiting parishes and schools around the Diocese along with attending Bishop School in Rome.

Thank you Bishop Vincke for saying YES!

Along with Bishop Gerald Vincke, we also welcome our new Diocesan Assistance Coordinator Deacon Steve Frueh. Along with being our new Diocesan Assistance Coordinator he is a Deacon at St. Mary's Queen of the Universe, Salina. Thank you Deacon Steve Frueh for saying YES!

And to our Safety Coordinators, thank you for saying YES. The ministry you are doing each day can be difficult and often thankless.

There is no doubt that Christ, is working through you, and He seeks to accompany you on this journey; to give you strength, patience, hope, and compassion as you bring God's love and protection to all those in need.

It is not you who chose Me, but I who chose you.

John 15:16

As a Community of Faith

With the recent release of the Pennsylvania Grand Jury report, many Dioceses have been mobilized into action. The Diocese of Salina is no exception. The sins and criminal acts of many have caused a great deal of pain and suffering for the individual victims and the community.

Bishop Vincke refers to the clergy sexual abuse scandal as a "Time for Healing". Bishop Vincke says it is completely understandable to have feelings of frustration, anger and confusion. The church scandal is weighing on all of us, and when one suffers, we all suffer. As our new Shepherd, "I will do all I can to make sure we do things the right way. I will have to gain your trust. I will give my life to you. The Lord has chosen me to be your Shepherd during this difficult time in the church. Pray for me. This might be a long process, however we put our trust in the Lord who will bring a greater good out of this than we can ever imagine".

As a community of faith let us pray for God's wisdom and strength for renewal. Here are some practical suggestions offered by Bishop Vincke:

For your parishes:

- Add a petition to the general intercessions at Mass for the healing of all Victims and for the Church.
- Offer Mass for the Forgiveness of Sins whenever possible.
- Gather parishioners for the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

For ourselves:

- Fast one day a week as a sign of repentance.
- Spend more time in prayer. It's a time for listening to Jesus and discerning His will.

For the safety and healing of children, the Diocese of Salina provides an

The USCCB has also shared some resources regarding the church scandal. We hope you will find them useful. This resource from Healing Voices is a good outline of how to make an impact with the "people in the pews" along with survivors. Founders of the Healing Voices magazine offer these suggestions for action that can have immediate impact in a parish or group, in homes with friends, or alone in the company of all the angels and saints.

Mass for Hope and Healing
Adoration - Rosaries - Novenas - Discussion Groups
Peace Circles - Sacred Places

The Healing Voices Magazine was founded several years ago to bring together voices from all corners of our Church in an editor-mediated setting to be heard, honored, affirmed and included in a body of work that has accumulated much information about what is working and what is not in the healing path beyond abuse scandals in the Catholic Church.

In the last few weeks, many of us have heard, "Because of this crisis, it's time for us to leave the Church. We've simply had enough." Bishop Barron's video, "Why Remain Catholic" has served as a way to evangelize during this time of crisis. You can view it here.

#iGIVECATHOLIC

We are working on a photo and video project to help promote our first-ever participation in #iGiveCatholic. We would love your assistance!

PHOTO instructions: Please utilize the enclosed #iGiveCatholic sign. Gather students in your school, parishioners after Mass, or other combinations of those in your parish or community. Have several of them hold the banner and snag a photo. Select your favorite photo(s) and email them to: newspaper1@salinadiocese.org.  Please be sure to send BIG photos ... FULL resolution or ACTUAL photo size if you are sending this from a mobile device. Thank you!!! (You may also wish to utilize this photo in the banner on your individual iGiveCatholic page).

VIDEO instructions: Snag a small group of those in your parish/school/organization and have them hold the sign for you. You may have the full group holding the sign, smiling. If you wish to pan across the group, that's great! We would be glad to have a few options: 1) Group holding the sign (no words); 2) Group holding the sign saying "I Give Catholic!!!" and/or 3) individuals holding a (smaller) sign, and explaining why they "Give Catholic" i.e. "I give Catholic to support my grandchildren" (maybe a grandparent holding a sign in front of one of our Catholic schools), or "I Give Catholic to support our retired priests" ... "I Give Catholic because I love my faith/church" whatever their individual reason.  Please shoot the video in a HORIZONTAL format if you are using a phone/mobile device (horizontal = side to side, see left)

Please email the largest photo/video file you have to newspaper1@salinadiocese.org.

Deadline = Friday, Oct. 8 by NOON!!!
