

The Monsignor John George Weber Century Farm Award Application Form

Presented by: The Salina Diocese Catholic Rural Life Commission, The Salina Diocesan Catholic Rural Life Commission established the annual Century Farm Award in August 1992, to recognize Catholic families of the Salina Diocese who have farmed or owned the same land in the Salina Diocese for one hundred years or more. In 2002, the Salina Diocesan Rural Life Commission honored Monsignor John George Weber for his many years of service to the Salina Diocese and National Catholic Rural Life Offices by adding his name to the century farm award. Just as Monsignor Weber has worked tirelessly to promote rural life and keep abreast of farm issues, this Monsignor John George Weber Century Farm Award recognizes the farmers and ranchers of the Salina Diocese who have been entrusted with the productive land of our diocese from one generation to the next and who have exemplified the Church's value of keeping their family associated with the land. The Catholic Church of the Salina Diocese congratulates those who have been able to complete this task.
