Sorrowful Mysteries _TUESDAY & FRIDAY

The Agony in the Garden

That all who persevere in faith in the Missions may feel the presence of the Lord in their lives.

The Scourging at the Pillar

That all who suffer in body, especially the hungry millions in the Missions, may be fed and comforted through our sharing.

The Crowning with Thorns

That all who suffer from despair, especially refugees in the Missions, may find hope in Christ's promise of eternal happiness for those who believe in Him.

The Carrying of the Cross

For the Church in the United States, that by our prayers and sacrifices for the Missions, we may help bear the burdens of our brothers and sisters worldwide.

The Crucifixion

That those who hunger and thirst for justice in the Missions may work peacefully and successfully toward their goal.

Glorious Mysteries _SUNDAY & WEDNESDAY

The Resurrection

For the Church worldwide, that our faith in the Risen Christ may draw others to Him.

The Ascension

That Christ, Who lived as a man and returned to the Father, will grant to all people knowledge of the Way to eternal life.

The Descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles

For our Holy Father, that the Holy Spirit will grant him wisdom, fortitude and holiness as he guides the Church in the path of Christ.

The Assumption of Our Lady into Heaven

That Mary, who gave the human body of Christ to the world, may inspire us who form the Body of Christ on earth to proclaim His message to all peoples.

The Crowning of Our Lady Queen of Heaven

That through the intercession of Mary, Queen of the Missions, young men and women will offer their lives to God as priests and Religious in service of their neighbors.

Luminous Mysteries _THURSDAY

moments from Jesus' public ministry — with stories from the Missions

The Baptism in the Jordan

In a hospital in Hong Kong, a Sister spoke to a young cancer patient, an orphan, about God, our loving Father, and about heaven, our eternal home. Baptized, the child made the journey to God clothed in Christ because a Sister had shared with him the fruits of her own baptism.

The Wedding at Cana

Mother Teresa once brought rice to a hungry family only to find the next day the food was gone. A neighboring family also had no food, receiving from the first family not only the sustenance but also the witness of Christian love.

The Proclamation of the Kingdom of God & Call to Conversion

In East Africa, a Catholic family, hearing of a village far from their own where the people had never heard of Christ, moved there. Day by day, they would tell — and show — the people what it means to be a follower of Christ.

The Transfiguration

To catch even a glimpse of the glory that awaits us in Christ is a gift beyond compare for millions of people whose lives are a daily struggle. Such a glimpse was caught in Liberia, West Africa. When people by the hundreds fled from their homes in the midst of civil war, their pastor said, "They left all of their belongings behind, but they brought with them one valuable possession — their faith."

The Institution of the Eucharist

World Mission Sunday, celebrated each year on the next-to-last Sunday in October, in the context of the Mass, reminds us that we who eat Christ's Body and drink His Blood are sent to continue His mission to the world.

In February of 1951, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen (national director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith from 1950 to 1966), in a radio address (The Catholic Hour), inaugurated a World Mission Rosary. "We must pray, and not for ourselves, but for the world. To this end, I have designed the World Mission Rosary. Each of the five decades is of a different color to represent each of the five continents." Praying this Rosary, Archbishop Sheen said, would "aid the Holy Father and his Society for the Propagation of the Faith by supplying him with practical support, as well as prayers, for the poor mission territories of the world."

Each decade of that World Mission Rosary calls to mind an area where the Church continues her evangelizing mission: GREEN for the forests and grasslands of AFRICA; BLUE for the ocean surrounding the ISLANDS OF THE PACIFIC; WHITE symbolizing EUROPE, the seat of the Holy Father, shepherd of the world; RED calling to mind the fire of faith that brought missionaries to the AMERICAS, and YELLOW, the morning light of the East, for ASIA.

DAILY PRAYERS FOR THE MISSIONS

Father, You will Your Church to be the sacrament of salvation to all peoples. Make us feel more urgently the call to work for the salvation of our human family until You have made us one people. Inspire us to continue the saving work of Christ everywhere until the end of the world.

+ Our Father

+ Hail Mary

+ Glory be

+ St. Francis Xavier, pray for us

+ St. Therese of the Child Jesus, pray for us

"Peace will come only when the hearts of the world have changed. To do this we must pray, and not for ourselves, but for the world. The world means everyone.... But we cannot change without prayer, and the power of the Rosary as a prayer is beyond description. For the love of Our Lord and His Blessed Mother, won't you please make a tour of the world on your World Mission Rosary? I know you will."
